Standing of the League

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., June 20.—Charlie Shaffer's Lawmakers took the third of the series here to-day from the Tobacconists by a score of four to three. Snow fielding and the six errors chalked against the locals cost them the game. The contest was far as pretty and interesting as the one pulsed off yesterday. Colonel Still, of the Kichmond team, had Rickards, the twirler for the Danvilles, outclassed. Rickards, the southpaw, allowed eight hits, and was inclined to be wild. Danville started on with the run getting, making one each in the second and third-dnnings. The first run was made by a two-bagger, followed up by a base on balls and then a single. In the third inning the run was made by a wild

Take One of Double-Header.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PORTSMOUTH, VA., June 20.—Portsmouth and Roanoke broke even in a double-fleader played here to-day. The Hightenders won the first contest, which was protested by Manager Kain, by a score of 8 to 3. The Truckers took the second, 2 to 1. The work of Umpire Newhouse was so rank that he was hooted from the grandstand and bleachers, and Kain registered several kicks. His greatest mistakes was made when he refused to call Brown out on a fly ball that Conroy caught clees to the ground. Titman was hit by a pitched ball, but the umpire would not give him his Mase, this resulted in the protest. Hall, a new mah, receitly signed by Portsmouth, was given a trial, and was not in form. He allowed the Kellyites to firm and gave five free passes.

willis pitched a good game for Roanoke and had good support. McMahon was hart by a runner in the second inning, and Watsoft took his piace at short. The second game was a pitcher's battle between Schuman and Hines, and the Rortsmouth twirler came out best. Only seven implays were played, but these seven innings were played, but these abounded in good plays and fast fielding by both teams. Brown's work in center robbed Portsmouth of several hits, and Watson was a wonder at short. Edwards

LYNCHBURG WON EASILY

Broke Even With Norfolk in Series of Four Games Played.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., June 20 .- With Mose in the box, Lynchburg easily won from Norfolk this afternoon. The visitors gave times during the game, while the locals played as tail-enders might be expected to play on one of their off days. It was decidedly an off day for the locals, Errors in the third inning let in the Hill Climbers' first four runs. Without Hill Climbers' first four runs. Without a hit Daringer, Bowen, Wilson and Mc-Kevitt got to first and walked around the bases and to home, while the locals hopped almiessly around. Clark, Mc-Mahon, Soitz and Dingle all had a chance to play rotten ball, and each of them availed himself of it. Dingle, out in center, waited until the sixth for his bungle, Daringer put a single to left, and when Bowen put another to center Dingle calinity passed it up and Daringer scored. The Tercentennials' only run was made in the ninth. Seltz, after forcing Moßahon on second, went to third on a single by Hopkins, and stole home on Walsh's effort to throw Hopkins out at second. The two teams broke even on the series of four games played. Score:

LAWMAKERS AND HILLCLIMBERS

Richmond Team Home To-day, and Will Begin Series With Lynchburg.

STILL AND MOSER TO MEET

Looks Like These Mighty Twirlers Will Face Each Other in Saturday's Game.

Harry Griffin, of Fork Union, Va., may join the Richmond team, and it is probable that he will be seen in one of the game here this week with Lynch in communication with Manager Shaffer and that his parents have consented to and that his parents have consented to his playing professional ball this sufficient.

Mr. Griffin pitched for the Fork Union Academy nine and he wen every game that he twirled. His record is nineteen struce-outs in one game where he allowed but one hif.

Leaving the academy he went to Richmond Coflege, and the "Spiders" three years age were pulled out of a hole because of Griffin's superf pitching. He is a gouthpaw, and is said to have plenty of curves and a lot of speed.

The "Colonel" took his eleventh game yesterday, and why he did it must have been because he worked his head when men were on bases. Eight hits are chalked up against him, and it isn't usual for the Kentucky warbling willow to allow sitch a quantity of swats in any one game. But if he kept them scattsfed, and the score certainly see to show that he did, there's no use of kicking. Long and Eckstone couldn't beat the Tobacconists, but Still was the slient one to deliver the large package.

Eckstone pitched a good game Tuesday, and Tokking at the hits and errors will count for anything, he should have Two Favorites Win.

Eckstone pitched a good game Tuesday, and T looking at the hits and errors will count for anything, he should have wen. Antiony is given credit for a baderror in centerfield, and Reeve at shortstop got another one that permitted a Danville man to touch file rubber. Tifere were no earned runs and Richmond got the goose egg again.

Lynchburg ball players will arrive here this morning, and for three days they will be fighting the fine that Manager Shaffer has put on the diamond to represent Richmond. The Lawmakers will arrive from Danville at the same time that the visitors get here, and this afternoon the first battle will begin.

Richmond needs these, three games from this team that is now holding on to the flag that is waving from the top rung of the ladder. Lynchburg can will spare the three games, and if Tichmond can only take them she will make herself solid with the fans.

Leaving aside the question of a new

Leaving aside the question of a new pitcher, Richmond will put Long in the box to-day and Eckstone will work on Friday. The Kentucky Colonel, Still, will do the honors Saturday, and there are many who hope that he will be pitted against Moser, who is thought to be invincible. Still has a reputation that equals that of Moser, and when the two meet each other there is expected to be trouble.

That game in Norfolk must have bee worth witnessing. And the umpires cer-tainly must have been acceptable. Car-ter, of Lynchburg, handled one side and Leonard, of Norfolk, did the rest of the work. Both of them are pitchers, and they evidently knew when a ball went they evidently knew when over the corner of the plate.

FAIRMOUNT PROPERTY, Improved and Unimproved,

Saturday, June 23, 1906, COMMENUING AT 5 P. M.,

Saturday, June 23, 1906,
we will offer for sale at publicauction, on the premises, the following described property in the order named:
First. Nos. 179, 1791-2 and 1721 North Twenty-first Street. Cosy detached frama cottages of three (3) rooms each, with lots each 20x120 to 20-foot alley. Recently built of the very best material and occupied by excellent white tenants.
Second. No. 1700 North Twenty-first Street. An excellent, thriving store, now doing a splendid business on this busy corner. Key and good will go at the purchase Trice without extra charge.
Third. Five (5) lots, beginning at the southwest corner of Twenty-first and W and running southwardly; each lot fronting 28 feet by good depth.
Fourth. Lot, 30x12, to alley, southeast;
corner of Twenty-first and W Streets exactly opposite the above. This would make a seplendid location for a drug store, which is badly needed in Fairmount.
Fifth. Two (2) irregular-shaped parcels of ground lying between the four (4) corners of Twenty-first Street with its intersection with W Street.
Surely here is an opportunity for everybody to make a purchase, whether it is for a home, a place of business or a lot on which in the future to build.
Fairmount has all city improvementahow, and she is bound to grow.

TERMS—Very liberal and announced, at sale.

P. S.—Plats of the property can be obtained at office of the auctioncers.

A UCTION SALE OF SOME OF THI MOST VALUABLE PROPERTY, IN 8WANSBORO, VA., OR TUESDAY, JUNE 26, 1906, ON THE PREMISES, AT O'CLOCK P. M.

GLEN ALLEN, VA.

IS A SPONTANEOUS GROWTH Which bears out the theory that a village or city will come into existence wherever there is a suitable site and an actual need for it.

The place used to be called "Mountain Road Crossing," and there was no station there or postoffice, or store, or church, or schoolhouse or anything indeed except bread stretches of forest, interspersed with pasture lands, and an occasional patch of Indian corn or tobacco. But a few years after the war a postoffice was applied for, and they called it "Glen Allen," after the old homestead.

Since that time there has been gradual growth—steads, natural, unstimulated and unchecked. The population is inconsiderable, the place being merely an assemblage of pretty villas and attractive rural homes, but the surrounding country is progressive and tributary, and thus it has come about that Glen Allen has developed into a center of activity, and enjoys almost every advantage possessed by an opulent city. For instance, it has:

A new railway station; Twelve passenger trains; Three mail deliveries; Adams Express service; Local and through freights; Primary and graded schools; Telegraph service, day and night; Home and long distance telephone; General stores, wholesale and retail; A postoffice with sales rising some-times to \$3,000 to \$3,500 a year, until hungry-nosed politicians are sent in to run it down;

A nearby electric road, now build-A publishing house, which employs some fifty people;
And in the immediate neighborhood there are churches, mills, dairies, market gardens, orchards and the usual industries of a progressive people. Double-track railroad, with "cross-over" and sidings; The gently undulating grounds of Gion Allen are the highest in Henrico county, ranging from 205 to 280 feet above the water level of Richmond, and there is a natural drainage by the half-dozen rivulets which have their source on the cetate. The approach from Richmond is by way of the historic Hrock Turnpike—an hour's drive over the best highway in Virginia.

Glen Allen is 12 minutes from Elba station by mail train, or 25 minutes by

The commutation fare between Richmond and Glen Allen is only 12 cents, and there are 12 passenger trains.

If Forest Lodge should be opened as a residential hotel it would fill up at once, and every villa site in the vicinity would take on a new value.

A generous system of forestry has been practiced on the Glen Allen domain for more than forty years, until it has developed into a region of lawne and parks with many miles of woodlend rambles and embowered driveways. Much of the forest is in virgin pine, and the sheltered paths are mild and balmy even on winter days. South Park Avenue is now ready for purchasers. It runs right out from the station and is a hundred feet in width, fringed with native trees and shrubbery along its entire length.

. The price of these cottage or villa sites will be $200. They will have a frontage of about one hundred feet and a depth ample enough for commedicus residential needs and adornments, such as lawns and orchards and surdens. Suitable restrictions will insure development on proper lines.
